

Diakonie scholarship BayernMUN 2018 Call for applications

The United Nations Society Nuremberg e.V. offers in cooperation with the Diakonie Neuendettelsau scholarships for the participation at the conference "BayernMUN" in a total value of 249 €.

The scholarship covers the following three areas: a) conference fee (69 €), b) hotel (80 €) and c) transportation costs (up to 100 €). The figures included in the brackets refer to the highest possible amount per person. The scholarship is limited to the participation at the BayernMUN conference. The reimbursement of costs of the hotel is not linked to the official conference hotel. Every overnight stay in another hotel up to 80 € is refundable as well.

All interested persons can apply, regardless of their age or nationality. An application for the scholarship is possible even if the applicant has not yet registered or paid the conference fee. If the applicant has been rejected, a registration for the conference will still be possible after the scholarship committee has made its decision. However, if you want to participate at the conference - also without the scholarship - we advise you to register at www.bayernmun.org/registration and to pay the conference fee as soon as possible. If your application for the scholarship is successful, you can still hand in the request for reimbursement.

The closing date of the application process is January 15th, 2018 at midnight (CET). The final decision will be made by January 20th, 2017. The single-stage application process does not require an interview. Please send the following documents to scholarship@unsn.de by January 16th:

- Curriculum vitae (two pages max.)
- Letter of motivation (one page max. in English)
- Optional: certificates or written confirmations

Please send your application as one single PDF file and name it as follows:
